Ice-e

- <https://deltarune.com/icee> - Icee sighting found from the banner under free mp3 on main page

- Ice-e is real (presumably), and possibly has something to do with Dess's disappearance
- <https://deltarune.com/december/> - this is a fake “404 page not found” page
  - Found from the Ice-e page, linked through the word “sister”, dess ?
  - “The page you are looking for might have been removed, had its name changed, or is temporarily unavailable.” - presumed to be a hint towards finding the /dess page which isn't linked anywhere.

Welcome to holidaygirl1225's game secrets, glitches, and theories blog!

Today the official Dragon Blazers website was updated with a bunch of weird links. I searched around the official website for clues, and found about 26 pages so far. It doesn't seem to be an ARG, as there's no puzzles, and it doesn't lead to anything. Anyone else think the devs might have been eating a little too much fruitcake this year? XP

Another epic post holidaygirl1225. Can I be mod? This blog definately needs more posts, and possibly better ones.

Whoever is prank calling my phone needs to STOP.

Umm... maybe you shouldn't put your phone number in your username? XD

An excellent idea my fellow mod, and I made an account just for being full admin to be more secure (It would be better than mod anyways). Please give me privilidges.

By the way: prankers. Once I become admin you will be hit not with the ban hammer, but the BANBERD, a halberd for BANNING people... savor your last moments now.

How are they still calling me???

Sorry my computer is bugged, lol... um... looks like the admin panel isn't working lol... I can't give you privileges... Sorry you won't be able to be mod or admin.

It's nice having you comment though :3

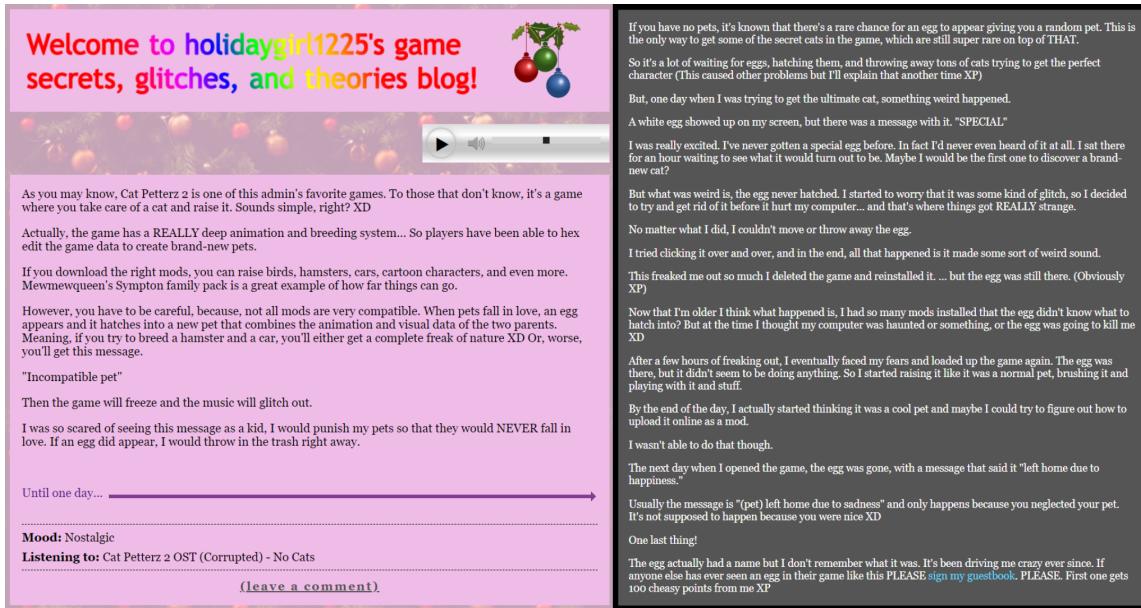

As for the phone calls...
Umm XD Your old posts are up there with the phone number still.

Are you saying I should delete my posts?
I may worship you as a mod,
but that's too far even for me.
As for your computer, worry not, I can fix it.
I have my way with computers... calculators want to kiss me. Laptops love me. With a flick of my wing, you computer will sing.

- Features a number which seems to be going up, likely reflecting the amount of hidden pages there are as they're getting added/found.
    - Currently, the number is at 26. (26 links found?)
  - The blog is making fun of the “ARG”
    - <https://deltarune.com/code/comments/> The comments for the blog. Features comments from someone who's implied to be Berdly and someone who's implied to be Jockington (“Sports”).
    - Space core: 555 is the fake area code for movies and stuff, probably not intended to be a real number
      - the number changes upon refresh, it isn't real, any real numbers it happens to end up on are coincidence
      - That was a change! It used to be one single, real number near the beginning of the ARG. Also, the new ones can never be real numbers, they're one digit too long.

Cat Petterz

- <https://deltarune.com/catpetterz/> - Cat Petterz 2, found from cardboard box link on main page
  - links to /egg
  - The mp3 is supposedly called “No Cats” by “Corrupted” from “The Cat Petterz OST”
  - [Audio Warning] The mp3 audio on the Cat Petterz 2 page is heavily glitched out and loud
  - The audio as far as we know does not contain secrets, nor are we able to un-corrupt it
  - By listening closely, it’s just an “arrangement” of Jingle Bells, much like the one in the /code page.

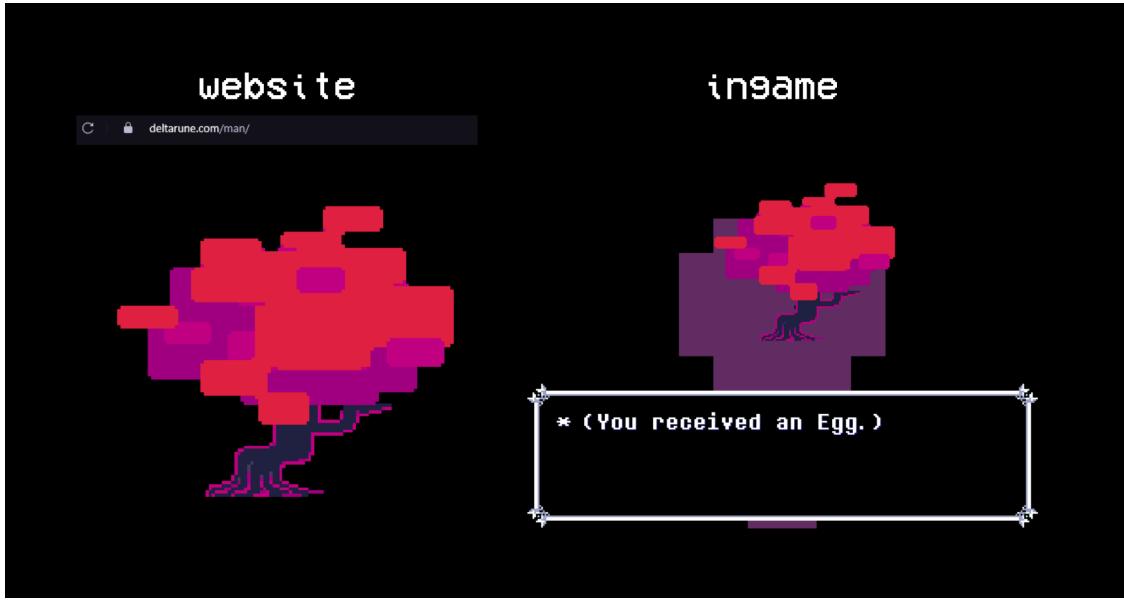

- Noelle talking about a glitch in the game "Cat Petterz"
  - The game appears to have lore implication, due to /egg
  - Connected to MewMew, so Alphys would be likely to know of this game

Egg

- <https://deltarune.com/egg/> - Information about eggs, most likely has to do with the "Man" eggs in Chapters 1 and 2 (even more so since you find egg page through "man" page)
- This page has been around since before the sweepstakes [citation needed]
  - "A white egg showed up on my screen, but there was a message with it. "SPECIAL""
  - When attempting to raise its happiness so it would hatch, the egg left due to happiness
    - Inverse of the stated normal game mechanics
  - Links back to /code
    - Originally said please email me, but then people actually tried to, so it was changed to a link.

Man

- <https://deltarune.com/man/> - (where is this page linked from? I don't think this is linked anywhere (I think the hyperlink was found through brute force)) Egg room from Deltarune chapter 1
- If you click slightly above the tree, it takes you back to egg

Dess

- <https://deltarune.com/dess> - goes to an image of a red guitar, clicking it lets you hear a variation of "Lost Girl." The filename of this version of Lost Girl is notably "findher.ogg".

The screenshot shows a 32x32 pixel red acoustic guitar on a black background. To the right, the browser's developer tools are open, specifically the Elements tab. The CSS section contains a rule for '.dess' with properties like min-width, max-width, min-height, and max-height set to 320px. The JavaScript section shows a 'Howl' object named 'dess' being initialized with two audio files: '/assets/audio/findher.ogg' and '/assets/audio/findher.mp3'. The volume is set to 0.5 and the loop is set to true. Click events on the element are handled to play or stop the audio based on whether it is currently playing.

  .dess { min-width: 320px; max-width: 100%; min-height: 320px; max-height: 100%; position: relative; color: black; cursor: pointer; } .dess img { position: absolute; height: 100%; width: 100%; object-fit: contain; image-rendering: pixelated; }
</style>
<script>
  var dess = new Howl({ src: ['/assets/audio/findher.ogg', '/assets/audio/findher.mp3'], volume: 0.5, loop: true });
  $(document).on('click', '.dess:not(.playing)', function() { dess.play(); $('.dess').addClass('playing'); });
  $(document).on('click', '.dess.playing', function() { dess.stop(); $('.dess').removeClass('playing'); });
</script>
[ '/assets/audio/findher.ogg', '/assets/audio/findher.mp3' ]

Bluebubble

- <https://bluebubble.rodeo/> - (link visible on image of toilet paper from main page) Cowboy designs for Kris and susie. Clicking on them plays the Tasque Manager whip sound. Interesting to note that it's only Kris and Susie here with the cowboy designs and not Ralsei.
- (Description: Get ready for 2 minutes of mildly entertaining shoot-out action!)

Dog

- <https://deltarune.com/dog/> - (Championship belt description) shows a picture frame, if you click on it the annoying dog appears in the frame with the text "Best Inu" under it, while playing a slow triumphant brass rendition of "a real boy" from Chapter 2. "Inu" just translates to "dog" in Japanese. Also might imply that the annoying dog is a Shiba Inu.

Blink

- <https://deltarune.com/blink/> - found when following the “[Blink]” hyperlink on the page for Spamton 3D celebrity photo cube
- Features Susie randomly blinking, Susie also blinks when clicking
- The Javascript code for the blinks uses the `math.random()` function, so assuredly NOT morse code.

Sighting

- <https://deltarune.com/sighting/> (scary warning) - Found from toilet paper link, shows pictures of the Spamton plush on a toilet.

SecretPipis

Secret

- <https://deltarune.com/secret/> - Found on banner under free mp3 on main page.
- a bunch of closets that play a so sound when opened.
A screenshot showing two blue closet icons side-by-side.
- You might find a Ralsei plush jumpscare, empty gumball machine, a pipis, a picture of the superbad wiki https://en.m.wikipedia.org/wiki/Superbad\_\(website\)), or a link to /chair

- (<https://deltarune.com/chair/>) DON'T spam the chair you might get jumped! Clicking the chair has a small chance to show yellow and pink eyes (spamton style) and redirect you to the main page) (But what if it could get... darker than dark *as tab description*) returning to secret after that will not allow you to click any closets. (you only need to return to the previous page without getting the jumpscare)

Ramb

- <https://deltarune.com/ramb/> - Found from shirtware link on main page leads to the green room from the status update - with 3 clickable doors
- Leads to the following links

- <https://deltarune.com/weather> - goes to a image of two weather themed enemies clicking on them shows their attack animation

- (Description: You're The annoying Now Dog)
- (Clicking on it: THE WEATHER ALWAYS STICKS TOGETHER)
- <https://deltarune.com/tv> - Titled: "It's off". Shows the TV from the end of Chapter 2 where the smile appears after Kris supposedly creates a dark world.

- <https://deltarune.com/changingroom> - Titled: (Private...). Shows a shadowman putting on socks behind a curtain. Likely a reference to how the ACT in their fight involves knocking off their socks.

- Has a rare chance to replace shadow man with lancer, clicking on this Lancer takes you to Lancer Page
- <https://deltarune.com/shadowmen> (clicking on shadowman)
  - Shows battle footage against two enemies called Shadowmen.
  - A section of a slowed down version of Rude Buster plays in the background.
  - The shadowmen appearance seems to be based off of 1930's American Gangsters (Those outfits are probably in reference to ska music, same as the shadowmen, see the saxophones).
  - A written description of the video: A spare act involves Kris, Susie, and Ralsei (also dressed like Gangsters) shooting hearts at the socks of the shadowmen to spare them. In the attack/wave phase, one Shadowman attacks with an auto locking saxophone attack, while the other fires bullets from a semi-auto machine gun.
  - Shadowmen is also linked from the ralsei plush
- <https://deltarune.com/lancer> - [WARNING! Clicking on Lancer will make the page semi-flashy].
  - Found from Lancer cookie link on main page, (can be rarely found from changing room).

- Features an 8-bit Final Fantasy/Dragon Quest-esque sprite of Lancer. Clicking on him displays “HO HO HO!!! YOU GOT LANCERED!!!” while an 8-bit arrangement of his theme plays.

Kris

- https://deltarune.com/kris\_dreemurr\_kris/ - from the locket page - lore about Kris and presumably Noelle
- Kris would go over to Noelle’s house all the time as a kid, and the two of them would play together
- Kris would suddenly stop and start playing the Piano
  - Kris would stop playing it if Noelle came to the room with the Piano, but if she didn’t they would play it for hours without stopping
- Listed as a private post
- Contains Noelle’s Blog title, just blacked out

[This is a private post. Only friends can see this.]

It's funny... there was a time when they were coming over almost every day.

We'd play, and we'd play... then after a while, they would suddenly get very still, like they were remembering something.

They'd go into the dining room to "get a snack," then after a few moments, I'd hear the piano.

The first few times, I went into watch them play, but when they realized I was looking, they'd always shut the piano and come back.

So over time, I just started staying on the couch in the living room. I'd lie there, listening to them play, sometimes for hours, sometimes even until I fell asleep.

Even then, what were they thinking about me?

Maybe they weren't thinking about me at all.

They didn't have a piano at their house, so they probably just came over to use mine.

Even then, with my eyes open, there were times when I wasn't even sure if we were friends.

But when I closed my eyes,

it felt like a concert just for me.

BlueCircle

- <https://deltarune.com/bluecircle/> - pipis rug
- Noelle got a pipis virus in Cat Petterz 2 by Spamton (confirmed to be Spamton by the FAQ)
  - Pipis made copies of itself on its own until the game crashed and she lost her save data
- Links back to /code
- Contains Noelle's Blog title, just blacked out

I barely ever receive fan mail (no pressure guys XD), but just in case I ever get an email from anyone out there, I have this habit of always reading my spam mail, just in case it's someone real.

Mostly it's just weird stuff like "hochi mamas can get big too" (promise I wasn't looking at any weird sites guys... minkay? XD)

But one day, one of the spams I got was nothing but random letters and numbers.

I figured it was probably a failed attempt at sending me a virus, but I thought... what if I tried putting it into Cat Petterz 2 as a mod?

So I did. And weirdly enough, it actually managed to load.

For people that don't know the game, it has a special visual style. All the pets are made of circles that get animated around. One circle will be the head, another the eyes, another the pupil, another the body etc.

But I guess the game didn't like the data very much because this pet was only one blue circle. Yeah, just ONE blue circle floating in the air.

The animations didn't work and it never moved, except for occasionally glitching out.

All of the stats were really bad and all of my pets really hated it except for... certain ones .... lol... I couldn't explain why anyone liked it, but it was really funny to see who did XD

What's weird is that the circle seemed to be able to multiply. Normally you need 2 pets to fall in love to make a new pet, but after a while, even if the circle was by itself, a "Congratulations!" message would come up, and then there would be 2 circles.

I thought this was funny, but the circles started piling up. I tried to throw them in the trash, but they were multiplying too fast.

My screen was nothing but "Congratulations" messages when the game crashed.

Needless to say I had to wipe all my pets ><

Lesson learned about using files from weird emails ..... (Until next time... dun dun DAAA XD)

Newest Girl

- https://deltarune.com/the\_n3w3st\_g1rl\_g1rl/ - engraved wristwatch
- Listed as a private post
- Susie really hated Kris
- Kris appeared to have said something to Susie, causing Susie to bolt out of the school

- Uses language like "But, Kris, with their gamer reaction speed X) Held up their notebook like a shield and blocked it diagonally, bouncing it into the air..." and "THAT JUST HAPPENED. LOL X)"
- Contains Noelle's Blog title, just blacked out

[This is a private post. Only friends can see this.]

So, that new girl I keep talking about?
She really, really, REALLY hates Kris.
And you know what's weird? Literally ONLY Kris seems oblivious to this. Or, no. Are they oblivious? They're literally getting bullied! Do they just... not care? Then again, who knows what Kris is thinking. I just don't get why they don't tell their mom.
OR, BETTER, switch seats with me, like I keep saying lol. I guess they just don't want to be at the front of the class? But... She doesn't EVER bully me, EVEN when there'd be a HUGE opportunity to, so... Come on, switch seats, everyone would be safer that way X)
Like, you're not going to believe what happened today. lol
After the bell rang, as usual, everyone rushed to see who could get out of class first. I stayed behind a bit to help Alphys put away some books (and look for some mysteriously missing supplies X). Meanwhile, Kris was still asleep, face-down on a totally blank notebook page, and for some reason, Susie... hadn't left either. She was just sitting there... staring at Kris's head. Sniffing it...?? (Wonder if she'd like scented candles? X)
Eventually I started to leave too (I even almost said bye this time), but I was a bit worried about Kris, so I stayed outside the classroom to... umm, watch? X) I had to stay totally out of sight, Holiday family ninja style, since Susie didn't seem like she was going to do anything until she made sure I was gone.
After a while, Susie got up, knocking her chair over. She jumped into Ms. Alphys's seat and put her shoes up on the desk, getting dirt everywhere. (I just know I'm going to have to clean that. X)
She grabbed the apple Berdly had given Alphys a few days ago (you know, one of the ones she has literally never eaten X), held it up, and started talking.
"Hey, idiot."
Kris didn't look up.
"HEY IDIOT!"
Kris still didn't look up!
"KRIS!"
Kris looked up. Susie rolled her eyes and showed all of her horrible and very cool teeth.
"Nice shampoo. Apple flavor, right? Better be careful about wearing that around me."
Then she BIT THE WHOLE APPLE IN HALF! Including the core. She even ate the seeds, which, um, contain arsenic if you didn't know. X) Don't eat those Susie... anyway, Kris didn't react, so she continued.

Kris didn't react.
"Bitten..." she pointed to the apple. "In HALF."
There was like, the MOST awkward silence... and then...
Snickering.
But it wasn't Susie...
No, it was Kris, just barely stifling some laugh.
Did they think that was some kind of weird joke...? X)
WHATEVER it was, Susie must have thought she was getting made fun of, because she immediately just LAUNCHED the apple right at kris.
But, Kris, with their gamer reaction speed X) Held up their notebook like a shield and blocked it diagonally, bouncing it into the air...
And actually CAUGHT the apple.
Then took a bite out of it.
Gosh, though, did that make Susie mad.
"You little..."
She ran over and grabbed Kris by the hair, staring into their face. REALLY close. I froze. I knew that if I didn't do anything, Kris would get hurt, or worse, but something inside me just... froze! I just stood there, holding my breath. And Susie kept talking.
"One day, your mom's gonna get sick of you, you little freak. And as soon as that happens..."
Susie laughed. I felt genuinely sick.
"Someone might make you disappear. And she'll finally realize how happy she was without you."
But after all that,
Kris didn't say anything at all.
Susie EXPLODED.
"SAY SOMETHING, YOU IDIOT!!!"
It felt like her voice echoed around the room forever.
Then, when it finally went quiet,

Kris's mouth looked like it moved.
To be honest, moved so slightly, I couldn't even tell if they said something, or what, but whatever it was, Susie's attitude... suddenly completely changed.
She let go of Kris, backing off quickly, then left the room in such a hurry, she easily would have won today's "leaving first" race.
I REALLY wish I could have seen her reaction, but I was so scared she would see me that I literally just jumped into my locker X)
In the end all I could see through the little slats was her shape from behind, going towards the entrance of the school with her head held low.
Finally, I heard the entrance door close.
I sighed, and suddenly all that frozen feeling that had built up in my chest flew out of my body all at once.
"Holy cheese and crackers!" I said to myself. I almost started laughing from relief.
Then suddenly, my locker's door flung open.
Kris was standing there.
I started to stutter hello, and they just slowly, slowly shut the door on me and left.
WELL...
THAT JUST HAPPENED. LOL X)
I ordered apple shampoo, maybe if I wear it too she won't bother Kris as much X))))))))

  - Top one takes you to this. The page has the ocean sound in the background

- The page is titled “AREN’T YOU FORGETTING SOMETHING?”
- The black “door” takes you to https://deltarune.com/icepalace\_glaceir/
  - A blog about a strange glitch in a maze in Dragon Blazers. It also talks about a locked secret door that doesn’t seem to have a way to open it.
  - Links back to /code in 2 different spots, the broken image () and the link at the bottom
  - Noelle was terrified of electrical shocks for some reason as a child

Did anyone else wander around this screen as a kid?

The cross shaped maze in the ice area from Dragon Blazars. Once you go in it, no matter where you go, you'll always be brought back to the same room.

Normally one of the characters is supposed to guide you through the maze. But it became one of the most famous (or should I say infamous... XP) parts of the game because if you go there without that character, you'll get basically stuck... FOREVER.

The developers actually say something about this in the manual... It warns you this glitch is actually "one of the bad guy's magic spells"... Yeah XD... Sorry guys, I think you were just eating a little too much fruitcake when making this part of the game. XP

As a kid I had no idea that this was a glitch XD I literally spent hours on the screen wandering around thinking there was an exit!!

The thing is, there actually is one.

Somehow kid me was so stubborn, I think I went EVERY single possible direction somehow XD Then the last direction you go is up.

If you do that, you'll find a door that doesn't appear ANYWHERE else in the game.

This shocked me so much as a kid I screamed and pulled my controller so hard it unplugged the console XD I actually started crying... but I knew my mom would turn off the game if she heard me, so I held my breath and started hiccuping and gasping. I literally thought I was going to choke on my tears. It only made me cry more that I had to plug the game back in by myself. I was so scared that I would get electrocuted and die from the wires. I was actually always afraid of electrical sockets too because I thought they were looking at me XD (Come on I wasn't a weird kid I promise... XP I got over it after that)

So I started the game again, and with my hands shaking I went back into the maze.

But what's super weird, was that somehow, I was able to get RIGHT back to the door.

I was so happy I almosted started screaming again, but remembered to hold my breath halfway XD Now I was going to be able to see what was in the secret door...

Or so I thought XP It was locked. And I've never been able to find ANY key in the game that opens it.

Since then, I can actually get to the door pretty consistently if I concentrate.

Unfortunately I don't know exactly what I'm doing, and it feels different every time, so I can't give any advice XD

I know this sounds really really fake but if anyone ever figures out a way to open the door, PLEASE PLEASE PLEASE sign my guestbook. I'll even put you in my hall of fame (you know, so there can be someone in it besides me XP)
